SUBJECT: (U) START FOLLOW-ON NEGOTIATIONS, GENEVA
(SFO-GVA-VI): JCIC AGREEMENT 56 AND EXCHANGE OF LETTERS

REF: GENEVA XXX (SFO-GVA-VI-006)

11. (U) This is SFO-GVA-VI-005.

12. The text at paragraph 4 is Joint Compliance and Inspection Commission (JCIC) Agreement 56 on Principles and Procedures for the Completion of Continuous Monitoring Activity at Votkinsk. The Agreement was signed by the Representatives of the United States and the Russian Federation on the margins of the START Follow-on Negotiations in Geneva at the U.S. Mission on October 21, 2009. As the Agreement was only signed by Representatives of the United States and the Russian Federation, consent to be bound by this Agreement by the Republic of Belarus, the Republic of Kazakhstan, and Ukraine must be given by their Governments in accordance with paragraph 6 of Annex 1 to the Protocol on the JCIC. The Representatives of the United States and the Russian Federation, in accordance with paragraph 7 of Annex 1 to the JCIC Protocol, also agreed to temporarily observe this Agreement from the date of its signature until entry into force. The Agreement was also provided to Representatives of the Republic of Belarus, the Republic of Kazakhstan, and Ukraine on October 20, 2009 (REFTEL), with an accompanying letter indicating that the Agreement was not signed by Representatives of their Governments, and that their consent to be bound by the Agreement must be given in accordance with the procedures of paragraph 6 of Annex 1 to the Protocol on the JCIC.

13. Paragraph 4 also contains the text of letters which modify Letters of the Representatives to the JCIC, dated March 20, 2002, on procedures for using ground transportation vehicles for transportation of cargo consisting of equipment and supplies to and from the monitored facility at Votkinsk and the text of the U.S. letter and the official translation of the letter signed by the Representative of the Russian Federation. Paragraph 5 contains the text of letters that were also signed on October 20, 2009, that reflect the U.S. and Russian Federation agreement on procedures for settlement of accounts for activities conducted at the monitored facility at Votkinsk upon expiration of the START Treaty. Paragraph 5 also contains the text of the U.S. letter and the official translation of the letter signed by the Representative of the Russian Federation. Paragraph 6 contains the text of letters that were also signed on October 20, 2009, that reflect a broader agreement between the United States and the Russian Federation on procedures for settlement of accounts for other START Treaty-related activity upon expiration of the Treaty.

14. Begin text (JCIC Agreement 56):

JOINT COMPLIANCE AND INSPECTION COMMISSION
AGREEMENT NUMBER 56
RELATING TO THE TREATY BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND
THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS
ON THE REDUCTION AND LIMITATION OF STRATEGIC OFFENSIVE ARMS
OF JULY 31, 1991

PRINCIPLES AND PROCEDURES
FOR COMPLETION OF CONTINUOUS MONITORING ACTIVITIES
AT THE MONITORED FACILITY AT VOTKINSK

The Government of the Republic of Belarus, the Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan, the Government of the Russian Federation, the Government of Ukraine, and the Government of the United States of America, hereinafter referred to as the Parties,

In accordance with the Treaty between the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics on the Reduction and Limitation of Strategic Offensive Arms of July 31, 1991, hereinafter referred to as the Treaty,

To improve the viability and effectiveness of the Protocol on Inspections and Continuous Monitoring Activities Relating to the Treaty, hereinafter referred to as the Inspection Protocol,

Have agreed as follows:

Article One

The following provisions shall constitute Annex 16 to the Inspection Protocol:

"ANNEX 16
PRINCIPLES AND PROCEDURES FOR COMPLETION OF CONTINUOUS MONITORING ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH 14 OF ARTICLE XI OF
THE TREATY AT THE MONITORED FACILITY AT VOTKINSK

1I. General Provisions.

The Parties agree that for the purpose of completing continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty at the monitored facility at Votkinsk, no later than the date of expiration of the Treaty, or no later than the date the Treaty is superseded by a subsequent agreement pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier, the following shall be carried out:

(a) The monitoring team leader shall provide the in-country escort with an official written continuous monitoring report for that month in the language of the inspecting Party, signed by the monitoring team leader and a member of the in-country escort, along with an unofficial translation of the report in the language of the inspected Party. This report shall have the same content as the report provided for in paragraph 2 of Section XVIII of the Inspection Protocol. Each Party shall retain one copy of the report.

(b) The monitoring team at the monitored facility at Votkinsk shall cease its continuous monitoring activity and depart the territory of the inspected Party.

(c) The inspecting Party shall ensure that the buildings, structures, equipment, supplies, and other property located at the monitored facility at Votkinsk, included in the list noted in Section III of this Annex, are dismantled if necessary and are removed from the territory of the inspected Party and from the territory of the transit State Party to the Treaty, or are transferred or returned to the inspected Party in accordance with this Annex.

II. Procedures for Completion of Continuous Monitoring Activities Conducted Pursuant to Paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty at the Monitored Facility at Votkinsk.

1. Provision of logistical, transportation, and other support shall consist of the following:

(a) The inspected Party shall provide, at the request of the inspecting Party, support and assistance for the completion of continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty at the monitored facility at Votkinsk. Such support and assistance shall include:

(i) provision of surface handling and other equipment needed for the dismantlement, packing, removal, and transport of structures, equipment, supplies, and other property from the monitored facility at Votkinsk;

(ii) provision of materials needed for packing and preparing for the transport of structures, equipment, supplies, and other property from the monitored facility at Votkinsk. The procedure for providing these materials shall be determined by agreement between the monitoring team leader and the in-country escort;

(iii) provision of ground transportation vehicles and related services needed for the transport of structures, equipment, supplies, and other property to and from the monitored facility at Votkinsk; and

(iv) other support and assistance to be agreed between the monitoring team leader and the in-country escort.

(b) The inspecting Party shall have the right to deliver to the monitored facility at Votkinsk structures, equipment, supplies, and other property that are necessary for the completion of continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty at that facility. Such additional structures, equipment, supplies, and other property shall be removed by the inspecting Party from the territory of the inspected Party no later than the date of expiration of the Treaty, or no later than the date the Treaty is superseded by a subsequent agreement pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier.

(c) Ground transportation vehicles and related services provided by the inspected Party pursuant to subparagraph 1(a)(iii) of this Section shall be provided in accordance with the provisions contained in the Letters of the Representatives to the JCIC on the Procedures for Using Ground Transportation Vehicles for the Transportation of Cargo Consisting of Equipment and Supplies to or from the Monitored Facility at Votkinsk, dated March 20, 2002, and the Attachment thereto, as well as the Letters of the Representatives to the JCIC dated June 7, 2005, and October 20, 2009, hereinafter referred to as the Letters of the Representatives to the JCIC.

(d) Ground transportation vehicles transporting structures, equipment, supplies, and other property from the monitored facility at Votkinsk, pursuant to subparagraph

1(a)(iii) of this Section, shall depart the territory of the Republic of Belarus no later than the date of expiration of the Treaty, or no later than the date the Treaty is superseded by a subsequent agreement pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier.

(e) The inspecting Party shall have the right to conduct flights of inspection airplanes to deliver to, or remove from, the monitored facility at Votkinsk, monitors, as well as structures, equipment, supplies, and other property associated with the completion of continuous monitoring activities at that facility. Such flights shall be conducted into the airport associated with the monitored facility and shall be conducted in accordance with paragraph 4 of Section IV of the Inspection Protocol.

(f) The inspected Party shall examine structures, equipment, supplies, and other property to be removed from the monitored facility at Votkinsk. This examination shall be conducted by the in-country escort and technical experts of the inspected Party when such items are being dismantled and prepared for transport to the territory of the inspecting Party. Monitors shall be permitted to be present during such examinations.

12. Notifications provided in connection with the activities provided for in this Annex:

(a) The inspecting Party shall provide to the inspected Party a notification containing a request for the support or assistance provided for in subparagraphs 1(a)(i) and 1(a)(iv) of this Section, no less than 10 days prior to the date specified in the request for such support or assistance. The inspected Party shall respond to such a request no less than 5 days prior to the date specified in the request for such support or assistance. The Parties shall provide the notifications specified in this subparagraph through the Nuclear Risk Reduction Centers of the Russian Federation and the United States of America and through the National Agency for Verification and Inspections of the Republic of Belarus, using format number 144 ("Notification of Additional START Message").

(b) Notifications concerning the provision of ground transportation vehicles and related services, pursuant to subparagraph 1(a)(iii) of this Section, shall be exchanged by the Parties in accordance with the Letters of the Representatives to the JCIC.

(c) The inspecting Party shall provide to the inspected Party notification of an intention to conduct flights of inspection airplanes pursuant to subparagraph 1(e) of this Section. This notification, which shall be provided in addition to the notifications specified in paragraphs 17 and 18 of Section III of the Inspection Protocol, shall be provided no less than 10 days prior to the date of arrival of the airplane at the airport associated with the monitored facility at Votkinsk. This notification shall include a detailed listing of the additional structures, equipment, supplies, and other property intended for delivery to the monitored facility at Votkinsk. This notification shall also include information specified in paragraph 17 of Section III of the Inspection Protocol. The information provided in this notification shall be updated in subsequent notifications provided by the inspected Party in accordance with paragraphs 17 and 18 of Section III of the Inspection Protocol. The inspecting Party shall provide the notification specified in this subparagraph through the Nuclear Risk Reduction Centers of the Russian Federation and the United States of America and through the National Agency for Verification and Inspections of the Republic of Belarus, using format number

13. In addition to the provisions of paragraph 22 of Section V of the Inspection Protocol, the monitoring team leader and the in-country escort may, by agreement, arrange meetings between representatives of the mass media, monitors, and personnel of the inspected Party engaged in activities related to the completion of continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty both at the monitored facility at Votkinsk and the point of entry. Such meetings shall be arranged so as not to interfere with the completion of continuous monitoring activities.

14. Structures, equipment, supplies, and other property shall be transferred or returned using the following procedures:

(a) The inspecting Party shall transfer to the inspected Party all structures, equipment, supplies, and other property used by the inspecting Party at the monitored facility at Votkinsk that the inspecting Party does not remove from the territory of the inspected Party at the completion of continuous monitoring activities. Such structures, equipment, supplies, and other property may include those items that the inspected Party provided at the request and expense of the inspecting Party or structures, equipment, supplies, and other property that the inspecting Party provided at its own expense at the monitored facility at Votkinsk. The inspecting Party shall transfer such structures, equipment, supplies, and other property to the inspected Party, in a condition that is safe and suitable for further use, no later than the date of expiration of the Treaty, or no later than the date the Treaty is superseded by a subsequent agreement pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier.

(b) The inspecting Party shall ensure that the buildings used by the monitoring team at the monitored facility at Votkinsk under the Treaty that were originally constructed by the inspected Party and first used by the inspecting Party under the Treaty Between the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics on the Elimination of Their Intermediate-Range and Shorter-Range Missiles of December 8, 1987, which include the monitoring team headquarters ("Roosevelt Building"), the building for storage of equipment and supplies ("warehouse"), and the buildings used by the monitors for permanent lodging and workspace ("Washington Building," "Jefferson Building," and "Lincoln Building") are returned to the inspected Party in a condition that is suitable for further operation. The inspecting Party shall return these buildings to the inspected Party no later than the date of expiration of the Treaty, or no later than the date the Treaty is superseded by a subsequent agreement pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier.

15. The inspected Party shall not exact taxes, levies, apportionments, or other payments on the value of the following buildings, structures, equipment, supplies, and other property in connection with the completion of continuous monitoring activities at the monitored facility at Votkinsk in accordance with this Annex:

(a) structures, equipment, supplies, and other property of the inspecting Party that are transferred to the inspected Party pursuant to Section I of this Annex and subparagraph 4(a) of this Section;

(b) buildings that are returned to the inspected Party pursuant to Section I of this Annex and subparagraph 4(b) of this Section; and

(c) structures, equipment, supplies, and other property of the inspecting Party that are removed from the territory of the inspected Party pursuant to Section I of this Annex.

16. The Parties understand that equipment, supplies, and other property controlled by the "dual key" system at the monitored facility at Votkinsk shall be returned to the territory of the inspecting Party, unless otherwise agreed by the monitoring team leader and the in-country escort.

17. The financial responsibilities of the Parties shall consist of the following:

(a) Unless stipulated otherwise in this Annex, the inspecting Party shall bear the cost of goods and services provided by the inspected Party at the request of the inspecting Party in connection with the completion of continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty at the monitored facility at Votkinsk.

(b) Unless stipulated otherwise in this Annex, the inspected Party and the inspecting Party shall use the procedures set forth in Annex 14 to the Inspection Protocol to settle accounts in connection with costs incurred in connection with the completion of continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty at the monitored facility at Votkinsk.

(c) The inspected Party shall bear the costs associated with structures, equipment, supplies, and other property of the inspecting Party that are transferred to the inspected Party after the completion of continuous monitoring activities pursuant to Section I of this Annex and subparagraph 4(a) of this Section.

(d) The inspected Party shall bear the costs associated with buildings that are returned to the inspected Party after the completion of continuous monitoring activities pursuant to Section I of this Annex and subparagraph 4(b) of this Section.

(e) The Parties shall use the procedures set forth in the Letters of the Representatives to the JCIC to settle accounts for costs incurred in connection with the provision of ground transportation vehicles and related services pursuant to subparagraph 1(a)(iii) of this Section.

(f) The inspected Party and the inspecting Party shall agree on arrangements, based on the provisions of Annex 14 to the Inspection Protocol, for the settlement of accounts remaining after the date of expiration of the Treaty or after the date the Treaty is superseded by a subsequent agreement pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier.

(g) The monitoring team leader and the in-country escort shall develop procedures on-site for keeping a record of goods and services that are provided by the inspected Party at the request of the inspecting Party pursuant to the provisions of this Annex.

III. List of Buildings, Structures, Equipment, Supplies, and Other Property.

11. The monitoring team leader, together with the in-country escort, shall develop a list, in two copies, one for the inspecting Party and one for the inspected Party, consisting of three sections, of buildings, structures, equipment, supplies and other property used by the monitoring team at the monitored facility at Votkinsk.

12. Structures, equipment, supplies, and other property of the inspecting Party that are to be removed from the territory of the inspected Party pursuant to Section I of this Annex shall be included in the first section of the list developed pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Section.

13. Structures, equipment, supplies, and other property of the inspecting Party that are to be transferred to the inspected Party pursuant to Section I and subparagraph 4(a) of Section II of this Annex shall be included in the second section of the list developed pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Section.

¶4. The buildings that are to be returned to the inspected Party pursuant to Section I and subparagraph 4(b) of Section II of this Annex shall be included in the third section of the list developed pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Section.

Article Two

¶1. In subparagraph 1(a) of Section I of Annex 14 to the Inspection Protocol, the words and punctuation "Inspection Protocol; and" shall be superseded by the words and punctuation "Inspection Protocol;".

¶2. In subparagraph 1(b) of Section I of Annex 14 to the Inspection Protocol, the words and punctuation "Annex 5 to the Telemetry Protocol." shall be superseded by the words and punctuation "Annex 5 to the Telemetry Protocol; and".

¶3. The following provision shall constitute subparagraph 1(c) of Section I of Annex 14 to the Inspection Protocol:

"(c) the costs of goods and services associated with the implementation of Annex 16 to the Inspection Protocol."

¶4. In subparagraph 12(a) of Section I of Annex 14 to the Inspection Protocol, the words "On-Site Inspection Agency of the United States of America" shall be superseded by the words "Defense Threat Reduction Agency of the United States of America."

Article Three

The following provisions shall constitute paragraph 19 of Section II of Annex 14 to the Inspection Protocol:

"19. Support and assistance associated with the completion of continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty at the monitored facility at Votkinsk:

Geneva, Switzerland
October 20, 2009

Mr. Sergey M. Koshelev
Representative of the Government of the Russian Federation to the Joint Compliance
and Inspection Commission

Dear Mr. Representative:

In connection with the Letters of the Representatives to the Joint Compliance and Inspection Commission dated March 20, 2002, on the Procedures for Using Ground Transportation Vehicles for the Transportation of Cargo Consisting of Equipment and Supplies to or from the Monitored Facility at Votkinsk and the Attachment thereto, and the Letters of the Representatives to the Joint Compliance and Inspection Commission dated June 7, 2005, on such procedures, hereinafter referred to in the aggregate as the Agreement, on behalf of the Government of the United States of America, I have the honor to accept the letter of today's date to conclude an agreement on this issue, whose principal provisions are set forth below.

In connection with the completion of continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty Between the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics on the Reduction and Limitation of Strategic Offensive Arms of July 31, 1991, at the monitored facility at Votkinsk in accordance with the provisions of Annex 16 to the Protocol on Inspections and Continuous Monitoring Activities Relating to the Treaty, hereinafter referred to as the Inspection Protocol, the Russian Federation, the Republic of Belarus, and the United States of America shall continue to fully implement the provisions of the Agreement until all ground transportation vehicles transporting cargo consisting of structures, equipment, supplies, and other property from the monitored facility at Votkinsk have departed from the monitored facility, arrived at and departed from the point of departure of the cargo, and have returned to the territory of the Russian Federation.

With respect to potential "points of departure of the cargo," the Government of the Russian Federation proposes the following changes to the Agreement:

¶1. For paragraphs 3, 4, and 5 of the Attachment to the Letters of the Representatives to the Joint Compliance and Inspection Commission dated March 20, 2002, on the Procedures for Using Ground Transportation Vehicles for the Transportation of Cargo Consisting of Equipment and Supplies to or from the Monitored Facility at Votkinsk, the words "point of departure of the cargo at Frankfurt am Main or Darmstadt" shall be superseded by the words "point of departure of the cargo at Frankfurt am Main, Darmstadt, or Kaiserslautern."

¶2. For paragraph 11 of the Attachment to the Letters of the Representatives to the Joint Compliance and Inspection Commission dated March 20, 2002, on the Procedures for Using Ground Transportation Vehicles for the Transportation of Cargo Consisting of Equipment and Supplies to or from the Monitored Facility at Votkinsk, the words "Frankfurt am Main or Darmstadt" shall be superseded by the words "Frankfurt am Main, Darmstadt, or Kaiserslautern."

This reply, together with your letter, shall constitute an agreement between our Governments, which shall enter into force on the date of the exchange of our letters and shall remain in force until all ground transportation vehicles transporting cargo from the monitored facility at Votkinsk have returned to the territory of the Russian Federation. This agreement may be terminated 12 months after notification to that effect by one of the Parties to the agreement.

Please accept, Mr. Representative, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Representative of the United States of America to the Joint Compliance and
Inspection Commission

Dear Mr. Representative:

In connection with the Letters of the Representatives to the Joint Compliance and Inspection Commission dated March 20, 2002, on the Procedures for Using Ground Transportation Vehicles for the Transportation of Cargo Consisting of Equipment and Supplies to or from the Monitored Facility at Votkinsk and the Attachment thereto, and the Letters of the Representatives to the Joint Compliance and Inspection Commission dated June 7, 2005, on such procedures, hereinafter referred to in the aggregate as the Agreement, on behalf of the Government of the Russian Federation, I have the honor to propose the following.

The Russian Federation understands that, in connection with the completion of continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty Between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America on the Reduction and Limitation of Strategic Offensive Arms of July 31, 1991, at the monitored facility at Votkinsk in accordance with the provisions of Annex 16 to the Protocol on Inspections and Continuous Monitoring Activities Relating to the Treaty, hereinafter referred to as the Inspection Protocol, the Russian Federation, the Republic of Belarus, and the United States of America shall continue to fully implement the provisions of the Agreement until all ground transportation vehicles transporting cargo consisting of structures, equipment, supplies, and other property from the monitored facility at Votkinsk have departed from the monitored facility, arrived at and departed from the point of departure of the cargo, and have returned to the territory of the Russian Federation.

With respect to potential "points of departure of the cargo," I have the honor on behalf of the Government of the Russian Federation, to propose the following changes to the Agreement:

1. For paragraphs 3, 4, and 5 of the Attachment to the Letters of the Representatives to the Joint Compliance and Inspection Commission dated March 20, 2002, on the Procedures for Using Ground Transportation Vehicles for the Transportation of Cargo Consisting of Equipment and Supplies to or from the Monitored Facility at Votkinsk, the words "point of departure of the cargo at Frankfurt am Main or Darmstadt" shall be superseded by the words "point of departure of the cargo at Frankfurt am Main, Darmstadt, or Kaiserslautern."

2. For paragraph 11 of the Attachment to the Letters of the Representatives to the Joint Compliance and Inspection Commission dated March 20, 2002, on the Procedures for Using Ground Transportation Vehicles for the Transportation of Cargo Consisting of Equipment and Supplies to or from the Monitored Facility at Votkinsk, the words "Frankfurt am Main or Darmstadt" shall be superseded by the words "Frankfurt am Main, Darmstadt, or Kaiserslautern."

If the foregoing is acceptable, this letter, together with your reply, shall constitute an agreement between our Governments, which shall enter into force on the date of the exchange of our letters and shall remain in force until all ground transportation vehicles transporting cargo from the monitored facility at Votkinsk have returned to the territory of the Russian Federation. This agreement may be terminated 12 months after notification to that effect by one of the Parties to the agreement.

Please accept, Mr. Representative, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Geneva, Switzerland
October 20, 2009

Mr. Sergey M. Koshelev
Representative of the Government of the
Russian Federation to the Joint Compliance
and Inspection Commission

Dear Mr. Representative:

With respect to the settlement of accounts associated with the completion of continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty Between the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics on the Reduction and Limitation of Strategic Offensive Arms, hereinafter referred to as the Treaty, at the monitored facility at Votkinsk, following the expiration of the Treaty or its supersession by a subsequent agreement pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier, I have the honor to accept on behalf of the Government of the United States of America the proposal set forth in your letter of today's date to conclude an agreement on this issue, whose principal provisions are set forth below.

Under this agreement, our Governments would agree that, upon the expiration of the Treaty or its supersession by a subsequent agreement pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier, the accounts for goods and services provided within the framework of arrangements carried out by representatives of either Government in connection with the completion of continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty at the monitored facility at Votkinsk, shall be settled on the basis of the provisions contained in Annex 14 and Annex 16 to the Protocol on Inspections and Continuous Monitoring Activities Relating to the Treaty, hereinafter referred to as the Inspection Protocol. Our Governments would further agree that additional arrangements consistent with the provisions contained in Annex 14 and Annex 16 to the Inspection Protocol may be agreed upon by our representatives, as necessary, to ensure the effective implementation of this agreement.

This reply, together with your letter, shall constitute an agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Russian Federation, which shall enter into force on the expiration or supersession of the Treaty, pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier, and shall remain in force until all accounts associated with the completion of continuous monitoring activities at the monitored facility at Votkinsk have been settled.

Please accept, Mr. Representative, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Dear Mr. Representative:

On behalf of the Government of the Russian Federation, I have the honor to propose an agreement between our Governments on the settlement of accounts in connection with the conclusion of continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty Between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America on the Reduction and Limitation of Strategic Offensive Arms, hereinafter referred to as the Treaty, following the expiration of the Treaty or its supersession by a subsequent agreement pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier.

The Russian Federation suggests that, following the expiration of the Treaty or its supersession by a subsequent agreement pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier, statements for goods and services, provided within the framework of measures implemented by representatives of either Party in connection with the completion of continuous monitoring activities conducted pursuant to paragraph 14 of Article XI of the Treaty at the monitored facility at Votkinsk, be settled on the basis of the provisions of Annex 14 and Annex 16 to the Protocol on Inspections and Continuous Monitoring Activities Relating to the Treaty, hereinafter referred to as the Inspection Protocol. Further, the Russian Federation suggests that additional measures conforming to the provisions of Annex 14 and Annex 16 to the Inspection Protocol be agreed upon, as necessary, by our representatives to provide for the effective realization of this agreement.

If the foregoing is acceptable, this letter, together with your reply, shall constitute an agreement between the Government of the Russian Federation and the Government of the United States, which shall enter into force on the expiration or supersession of the Treaty, pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier, and shall remain in force until all accounts associated with the completion of continuous monitoring activities at the monitored facility at Votkinsk.

Please accept, Mr. Representative, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Mr. Sergey M. Koshelev
Representative of the Government of the
Russian Federation to the Joint Compliance
and Inspection Commission

Dear Mr. Representative:

On behalf of the Government of the United States, I have the honor to propose an agreement between our Governments on the settlement of accounts in connection with the Treaty

Between the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics on the Reduction and Limitation of Strategic Offensive Arms, hereinafter referred to as the Treaty, following the expiration of the Treaty or its supersession by a subsequent agreement pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier.

Under this agreement, our Governments would agree that, following the expiration of the Treaty or its supersession, the provisions contained in Annex 14 to the Protocol on Inspections and Continuous Monitoring Activities Relating to the Treaty, hereinafter referred to as the Inspection Protocol, as modified by the provisions of Annex 16 to the Inspection Protocol, shall serve as the basis for the settlement of accounts for goods and services in connection with:

(a) the costs of goods and services borne by the inspecting Party pursuant to paragraph 13 of Section IV of the Inspection Protocol;

(b) the costs of goods and services associated with the purchase of tapes and the copying of telemetric information onto such tapes pursuant to the Thirty-fifth Agreed Statement in the Annex to the Treaty on Agreed Statements, with the providing of training, maintenance, service, spare parts, and replacement parts relating to telemetry equipment pursuant to paragraph 7 of Section I and paragraph 8 of Section II of Annex 1 to the Telemetry Protocol, and subparagraphs 4(d) and 4(e) and paragraph 6 of Annex 4 to the Telemetry Protocol, and with the implementation of Section III of Annex 5 to the Telemetry Protocol; and

(c) the costs of goods and services borne by the inspected Party pursuant to paragraph 18 of Section V, paragraph 13 of Section IV (that pertains to parking and security protection for inspection airplanes at the point of entry) and subparagraph 19(a) of Section V (that pertains to transportation of monitors at the point of entry) of the Inspection Protocol that are reimbursed by the United States of America in accordance with the statements of policy concerning reimbursement of inspection costs exchanged by the Governments of the United States of America, Republic of Belarus, Republic of Kazakhstan, and Ukraine on February 3, 1995, in Geneva, Switzerland.

Our Governments would further agree that additional arrangements consistent with the provisions contained in Annex 14 and Annex 16 to the Inspection Protocol may be agreed upon by our representatives, as necessary, to ensure the effective implementation of this agreement.

If the foregoing is acceptable, this letter together with your reply shall constitute an agreement between our Governments, which shall enter into force on the date of the expiration or supersession of the Treaty, pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier, and shall remain in force until all accounts related to the Treaty have been settled.

Please accept, Mr. Representative, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Jerry A. Taylor
Representative of the

United States of America to the Joint Compliance and
Inspection Commission

Dear Mr. Representative:

With respect to the settlement of accounts associated with the Treaty Between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America on the Reduction and Limitation of Strategic Offensive Arms, hereinafter referred to as the Treaty, following the expiration of the Treaty or its supersession by a subsequent agreement pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier, I have the honor to accept on behalf of the Government of the Russian Federation the proposal set forth in your letter of today's date to conclude an agreement on this issue, whose principal provisions are set forth below.

Upon the expiration of the Treaty or its supersession by a subsequent agreement, the provisions of Annex 14 to the Protocol on Inspections and Continuous Monitoring Activities Relating to the Treaty, hereinafter referred to as the Inspection Protocol and modified by the provisions of Annex 16 to the Inspection Protocol, will serve as the basis for the settlement of accounts for goods and services, associated with:

(a) the costs of goods and services borne by the Inspecting Party in accordance with Section IV, paragraph 13 of the Inspection Protocol;

(b) the costs of goods and services, associated with the purchase of tapes and the copying of telemetric information onto such tapes in accordance with the Thirty-fifth Agreed Statement of the Annex to the Treaty "Agreed Statements", with services related to training, support, maintenance, and delivery of spare parts and replacement parts as relating to telemetric equipment in accordance with paragraph 7 of Section I and paragraph 8 of Section II of Annex 1 to the Telemetry Protocol, and subparagraphs 4(d) and 4(e) and paragraph 6 of Annex 4 to the Telemetry Protocol and in connection with the execution of Section III of Annex 5 to the Telemetry Protocol; and

(c) expenses, associated with goods and services, borne by the Inspecting Party pursuant to paragraph 18 of Section V, paragraph 13 of Section IV (as concerns parking and security of inspection airplanes at the point of entry) and subparagraph 19(a) of Section V (as concerns providing monitors with transportation while monitors are at the point of entry) of the Inspection Protocol, which are reimbursed by the U.S. in accordance with statements regarding policy concerning the reimbursement of expenditures for inspections, which were exchanged by the Government of the U.S., the Republic of Belarus, the Republic of Kazakhstan, and Ukraine February 3, 1995, in Geneva, Switzerland.

To ensure the effective implementation of this agreement, additional agreements may be reached, as necessary, by our representatives, in accordance with the provisions contained in Annex 14 and Annex 16 to the Inspection Protocol.

This reply, together with your letter, shall constitute an agreement between our Governments, which shall enter into force on the expiration or supersession of the Treaty, pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article XVII of the Treaty, whichever is earlier, and shall remain in force until all accounts associated with the Treaty have been settled.

Please accept, Mr. Representative, the assurances of my highest consideration.
